Should we cut down forests!

I strongly believe that we should not cut down rainforests because it will cost thousands of dollars to replant every little tree.

Over 4300 different species of birds live in the canopy but by cutting down the rainforests we will be destroying their habitats. Animals will start to come into urban areas looking for food. It is our responsibility to protect our wildlife.